

FEDERAL LAW

On amending article 18 of “Federal Law on alternative procedure of dispute resolution with participation of a mediator (mediation procedure)” from July 23, 2013

Article 1.

To amend article 18, part 4, paragraph 1 of “Federal Law on alternative procedure of dispute resolution with participation of a mediator (mediation procedure)” from July 27, 2010 as follows:

- 1) joining in the self-regulated organization of mediators as its members not less than one hundred physical persons who are carrying out activity of mediators on professional basis, or not less than twenty organizations providing mediation. It is allowed that individuals acting as mediators on a professional basis, and organizations providing mediation join as part of a self-regulatory organization of mediators, in an amount not less than one hundred of said individuals and organizations together. The specified persons and the organizations shall meet the requirements to membership in such organization established by the present Federal law;

Article 2.

Present Federal Law comes into force on the day of its publication.

President of the Russian Federation

V.Putin